An animated discussion took place, open ed by Mr. SAMUEL SMITH, M.P., who brought up the old worn-outfiction that the first war with China was caused by opium. This slanderous misstatement brought up Sir THOMAS WADE, who promptly disposed of this libel on the British name. The ex-Minister to China, amidst the laughter of the meeting, showed how thoroughly Mr. Surra was at sea when quoting despatches by himself when Secretary of Legation, and then went into the history of the two wars will be followed by a Thibetan raid. with China, convincingly proving that opium had nothing to do with either, and that in the instructions given to Sir HENRY POT-TINGER and Lord ELGIN there was not a word said about opium. These statementof Sir Thomas Wade were fully confirmed by Mr. Horatio Lay, who was present when the negotiations were carried on at Tientsin. Mr. LAY said emphatically, with regard to the first war :- " In December Lin issued "a proclamation, saving that after De-"cember all trade with England should be at an end, and forbade English "goods being imported under any other "flag. It was that which produced the Sir TROMAS WADE frankly admits that opinm smoking is an evil, but very, sensibly says that so long as the habit existed, opium would be procured somehow. Any serious attempt to check the habit must originate with the individual. "There was " a remedy. Nothing would eradicate what was mischievous but the reform of the evil He believed nothing but the evengelisation of China would produce the reformation of the individual, necessary to accomplish "that." He then pointed out that to do this successfully, they must send men of education who could influence the literary class, who could speak to them as scholars, not the type of missionary now despatched to Ohina. Until that is done, he maintains, it ! would be as impossible to introduce Western views, either theological or moral, into China, as to attempt to Protestantise Ireland without having first converted the priests. Mr ALEXANDER, the Secretary of the Anti-Opium Society, had little to say in reply to the overwhelming weight of unimpeachable evidence brought by such authorities as Sir THOMAS WADE and Mr. LAY, but fell back upon missionary evidence as to the dileterious effects of opium smoking, and urged that the missionaries had no interest in decrying their country. It is unfortunate for his argument; however, that so many of them should for years have made such persistent efforts to blacken its fair fame. Possibly their conduct in this respect may be traceable, in some measure, to the historical saving of old WEN SIANG to Sir RUTHER-Dr. Siegort's Angostura FOED ALCOCK, when he bracketed the opium and the mesionaries in the words;-" Save us from op um and missionaries and all " will go well." As a matter of fact, if the question were put to the Peking Government had not a leg to stand upon, and made a sorry showing for their cause, when it was thus brought under the search-light of pers, to which Sir GEORGE BIRDWHOD, Sir JOHN STRACHET, Sir WILLIAM MOORE, Drs. HENDLEY, MAXWELL, and George Warr have contributed valuable evidence in support of Mr. BATTEN's paper, while Mr. Oxenham, the Rev. ALLAHABAD, 21st April. In the inquiry into the affairs of the Himsleya Bank in liquidation, which was continued at Mussourie, Mr. Moss, Manager of the Bank, was examined. Among other remarkable statements, he said that for sixteen years (1874-90) the directors never gave a report to the shareholders, for nine years (1830-89), he did not think the directors examined a book of the bank, and that for eight years (1882-90) in his opinion they did nothing to earn their salary.

In the course of the further examination of the Manager of the Himalaya Bank on Wednesday in the liquidation proceedings, it was eligited that within the space of two years one firm contracted a debt to the Bank of nearly two lakes of rupees, one of the partners actually being Auditor of the Bank at the time.
